

Christmas 2015 mini project

To celebrate Christmas 2015 the museum created a Christmas traditions wall.

Staff and visitors especially families with children were encouraged to participate.

Christmas traditions

Share your Christmas traditions with us

Christmas is fast approaching and here at the Museum and Art Gallery we would like to find out and share your favourite, funny and nostalgic traditions. It doesn't matter how quirky they are, we'd love to know! These will then go on display throughout December on our Christmas traditions wall.

To join in, pick up a holly leaf from reception. If you'd like to decorate it, you'll find colouring pencils in the activity hubs throughout the museum and art gallery!

Here are some of our favourite traditions that you shared with us...

I enjoy Christmas morning seeing if Santa has been

Going to midnight mass and celebrating my nephews birthday who was born on Christmas day. So Christmas dinner but Birthday tea

Every year me and my family head to Old Town to see the Christmas lights being switched on! Then we head to one of Old Town's classic pubs for a drink and a grab a 'Mr Cod' to eat on the way home—yum!!

A photo under the tree on Christmas eve with my sisters and cousin.

I like spending time with my daughters

Seeing my children opening their gifts

I love to make my own Christmas cards and leave mince pies for Santa

I always write a letter to Father Christmas to tell him what I would like to have for Christmas.

In the two weeks up to Christmas I always read A Christmas Carol. Christmas Eve we usually have a turkey curry with more turkey on Christmas Day. My wife opens her presents which always includes a Rupert annual!

My mum does a special Christmas menu. It's yummy!

Spending Christmas Eve with my family to celebrate 'Wigilia' the Polish Christmas celebration and meal.

Go to bed early leaving out a mince pie, glass of wine and a carrot for Santa and Rudolph

We always put up the Christmas tree two days before Christmas.
